

Report on the research stay in the UK 2 – 8 September 2002

International DRS Design Research Conference "Common Ground" at Brunel University, Runnymede/Egham, UK.

Acknowledgements

I would like to thank very much the following people who supported the preparations for my research stay:

Professor Heinzpeter Schmieg, Dresden University of Technology, Dresden, Germany.

Ms Katrin Pönisch-Pörschke from the Language Centre of Dresden University of Technology who committed herself greatly to the proof-reading of this conference paper.

Dr. Jürgen Hoefeld / DFG Deutsche Forschungsgemeinschaft, sponsoring this research project since May 2000, including an eight-week research stay in England in Summer 2000, a conference visit in Delft in autumn 2000, a twelve-week research stay in the USA in spring 2001 and a one-week conference participation in England in Summer 2001.

Rachael Luck, University of Reading, England, UK

Activities during the research stay

The research stay was for the objectives:

Library research in the British Library, visit the researcher Rachael Luck, participation at the conference including the presentation of my paper in order to international scientific exchange through discussions with other researchers.
